arrival of THE EVENING WORLD and ready

The regular point of delivery is from the corner of Broad and State streets, but ing to the depot, a distance of nearly half a mile, to get their Evening Worlds a few minutes earlier.

One of the many reasons why The Evening World is so popular with the little news-merchants, who sell the paper day after day, is the fact that it deals liberally with them always treats them fairly, and continually encourages and assists them whenever possible.

To encourage the newsboys of Trenton The Evening World offers four prizes as follows: Five dellars to the newsboy making the largest increase in his sales of The Evening World between Feb. 22 and March 22, 1890; $2.50 to the newsboy making the second largest increase; $1.50 to the newsboy making the second largest increase; $1.50 to the newsboy making the second largest increase; $1.50 to the newsboy making the fourth largest increase.

There are about seventy boys entered in the contest, and the greatest interest is taken in the competition.

The following are the names of some of the boys with the number of papers taken by each at the beginning of the contest:

George Bernhardt, 50: Charley Clegg. 42; Neimab Davis, 25; Warren Eldridge, 50; Will Freeman, 25; Sam Freeman, 25; John Goslin, 50: Frank Goldie, 50; Charley Hicks. 25: Joe Howell, 70; Charley Hicks. 25: Bol Sickle, 50; Rolly Weigand, 30; Eddy Walsh, 70: Herbert Snow, 20: Jeas Shorlys, 30; William Kezruskie, 100.

The grounds, grand-stand, free seats, &c., of the Brooklyn Players Olub are to be finished in thirty-nine more working days, so the contract says. The work may be done in still quicker time, so the contractor says. These grounds will undoubtedly be the finest ball grounds ever known.

Johnny Reagan and Pete McCoy, both popular middle-weignts of this city, will meet at the Police Gazette office next Saturday morning to arrange a match. Whether this match will be to a finish or not cannot as yet be amonneed, as neither of the contestants has as yet decided this point. It will be settled Saturday. It is probable, however, that a limited number of rounds match will result. Both men have deposited a one-hundred-dollar forfeit as a guarantee of good faith.

The next day after I inserted my advertisement offering to swop a piano for a horse or other equivalent, I got a really from Thomas Ditman, of East Twenty-ninth street. I visited his home and the result was that I got rid of the piano and am now the possessor of inst as good a horse as turns out in Central Park.

Mr. Ditman had a carriage, which, with a little fixing up, was good enough for anybody and the incre is a daisy. He furnished the money for repairing the carriage, and Sunday I took a little spin in the Park and the animal did a 2.44 clip to wagon by a stop watch held by a friend.

The piano had been a good one, but it was askly out of kilter. I practised no decention, however, and Mr. Ditman took it with his eyes open.

If the editor of The Evenino Wonld would like to ride behind a faxtnar, he may do so with pleasure to its owner—thanks to the swopping a line to me at the above address.

I would prefer, if you print this, that you do not give my full name nor address. The world reads The Evenino Wonld at the country, the Atalanta Boat Club, will hold its annual dinner in May. This is

The oldest rowing organization in the country, the Atalanta Boat Club, will hold its annual dinner in May. This is the same month, probably, in which the race with Yale will be rowed, as the Club is unanimous upon the question of so-cepting the manly offer of Capt. Allen, of the Yale erew. Capt. Allen offers to row the Atalantas on Lake Saltonstall.
